Coinival XLIX Big Success

Our first show of the year was hosted at the Double Tree hotel on April 9th & 10th. More than 20 dealers from 5 states presented their wide array of coinage and banknotes.

Over 300 participants attended the two-day show and they were treated to a fine selection of

United States coins and banknotes, foreign coins, coins from the Dark Ages to the Medieval Times, and ancient coins. Also included in the bounty was a great selection of jewelry, ancient artifacts, and stamps.

Dealers donated many door prizes that were given away during the hourly drawings. Ticket sales for the gold piece raffle exceeded 1200 tickets sold.

Cuddos to the Crew

The Crescent City Coin Club would like to extend a heart-felt thank you to all who donated time, labor and resources making Coinival a success.

Volunteers worked tirelessly to setup the sales floor so it was ready when vendors arrived, and to teardown the setup after the show. Others worked the front desk, helping show participants register, selling raffle tickets, collecting door prizes from the vendors and making the hourly door prize drawings. Even more, our club members, with smiles on their faces, welcomed dealers and show participants alike and did everything possible to ensure everyone had a good time.

The Crew: Jonel, Ruth, Patti, Bruce, Lorna, Bob, Rusty, Nick, Daniel, Steve, Roger, Rick, Billy, Ronnie, and Richard.

Good Job!

Goofy Auction April 20, 2011

What is a Goofy Auction?

It's a chance for you to bring up to 5 items of your choosing and place them on the auction block.

What can I auction?

Most anything. As long as it is legal, and acceptable for members of all ages.

Why should I put my stuff on auction?

Several reasons. Just look around the house. We all have those forgotten treasures and oddities, stashed in some nook and cranny. This is a good time to free up some house space while helping support the club. Proceeds from the auction help the club meet operating expenses. Besides all that—we have a blast with this auction.

But no one is going to want my stuff.

You'd be surprised! Members have brought all kinds of stuff throughout the years (Once again, within good taste) from the antiquated to the oddity. That's what makes the auction so much fun.

Remember, one's junk is another's treasure.

Still not convinced, then dig this. The reason the auction was pushed back to April was because I forgot to notify everyone about the auction in March. Yeah, my bad!

So if you folks don't bring some goodies to the auction, Bob Eddy has threatened to smash a pie in my face at the May meeting for my blunder.

Nobody wants to see that happen to me. Hey you guys have got to get me out of the dog house here. I'm depending on you folks for redemption.

Please get your stuff together and come to the Goofy Auction!

Minutes from the March 16, 2011 Meeting

Rick Demers opened the monthly meeting at the K of C Hall in Kenner at 7:15am and 28 people were in attendance.

Applications for membership were read as follows: 1st reading, Stanley Robert; 2nd reading, Kegan Thiebaud; and 3rd reading, Prof. Ray Frances Bass who was absent.

Announcement notifying the membership of the upcoming Board of Director's meeting on March 30, 2011 at Bob Eddy's home was made and members invited to attend.

Due to poor communication, and improper notice the March Goofy Auction was rescheduled for April.

Due to the high cost of crawfish and the Easter Holidays the club's April crawfish boil is rescheduled for May.

Norman Neyland won a $35 gift certificate from Gulf South Coins as the membership prize.

Kegan Thiebaud won a 1984 US Mint set as the door prize.

Daniel Ehrman won a 2002 Silver Eagle as the coin raffle.

Judi Correnti won $20 from the 50/50 drawing.
