November Coin Show Another Success

The club hosted its 3rd show of the year on Saturday and Sunday, November 19th and 20th.

We did a lot of promoting for this show and even though the total public attendance fell short of the summer show, our winter show was successful. Attending visitors totaled 368 participants. The Oak Street Festival in

New Orleans was a contributing influence in the lower attendance numbers.

Contrarily raffle ticket sales did well. The club sold over $1000 in raffle tickets.

We saw an increase of new collectors attending the show and we encouraged them to join our club.

Likewise, coin dealers were equally pleased.

Once again big thanks to the "Crew" for another job well done.

A Peek Into 2012 An Editorial by Michael Maniscalco

I am optimistic about the direction our club is going in the upcoming year. November's election has placed key people into important leadership roles that I expect will serve our club well. "Young Blood" is filtering onto our membership roles, and we are implementing programs focused on the science of numismatics.

But the road ahead will not be without its pitfalls. There will be trying times and during those times I encourage the club's members and officers to ban together, to adapt to the volatility of change and overcome obstacles that would otherwise prevent us from reaching our organizational goals.

In the 1992 film "City of Joy" a clinic owner tells a young, disillusioned doctor that there are truly only three choices in any endeavor: Run, Spectate, or Commit.

As a club, our choice must clearly be the former rather than latter two choices. A strong commitment to the growth of our club and the furtherance of numismatics from each of us is the formula for our success in 2012 and beyond.

Meeting Minutes November 16, 2011

Mike Buras, Pres. Opened the monthly meeting at 7:10PM. He gave a 2nd membership reading for Stanley Robert, Jr. and Linton Duet, Jr. He gave a 3rd reading for Salvadore Faia who was voted in as a member of the club.
