Wine & Cheese before Dinner

Robert Rongey and his lovely wife Judy have invited everyone for a social gathering before the Christmas Banquet on Wednesday December 15, 2012 and hopes that all can attend.

The Rongeyes will serve wine and cheese garnished with a loving smile and great Southern hospitality at their shop from 5:00pm until dinner time.

Robert is the proprietor of Gulf South Coins. And his shop is located in the same shopping center as Austin's Restaurant. What could be more convenient?

Hope to see you there.

It's Been Fun. An Editorial by Michael Maniscalco

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to serve you as Corresponding Secretary during the past two years. Spending my youth in the Boy Scouting program, I was constantly reminded by the Scout Master to leave the campsite in a better condition than I found it when I arrived. In this case I am not so sure that the "campsite" was in bad shape when I arrived, and the best that I can hope for is that I was able to add a new perspective during my tenure.

Steve Rogers will be taking my place in the upcoming year. He's going to do an absolutely fantastic job of which I have no doubt!

Change is good. It brings new ideas and perspectives into solving old problems. New faces on the Board will break old paradigms.

But I will not go without making one last official appeal to the 2013 Board and officers as a 2012 club officer. Be proactive. The upcoming year is paramount for the club and there are a number of issues in which you must handle.

- Increasing the membership to ensure the longevity of the club.
- Preparing for the ANA National Money Show.
- Amend the Club Bylaws to include Officer term limits.
- Make a public accounting of the club's financial status at the regular monthly meetings. The members deserve no less.
