December Christmas Banquet

The 2011 Christmas banquet was held at Smile's restaurant in Harahan on December 21st.

The banquet was well attended and all had a good time. What more could one ask for than to have great food in one's belly and good friends by one's side.

Roger Holder stood in for Rusty Pancamo as the club's Santa.

Mike Buras thanks all past board members and others for their support during 2011. Ritchie Frilot won the 10th ounce gold piece.

2012 Club Officers and Board of Governors

As Jeff Provost, host of reality game show Survivor, would say, "...the tribe has spoken."

November 2011 election resulted in a few changes in the club's leadership.

To those who held office or a chair on the Board in 2011 words can not express our gratitude for your service. And as most could guess these folks are still working hard for our club.

We thank:

Mike Buras
Patty Bennett
Sandy Goldstein
Steve Barns

Robert Caradona

Club Activities for 2012

- Michael Maniscalco, Nick Lagattuta, Bruce Erhman and Lorna Maniscalco hosted a two-hour lecture at the Jefferson Parish East Bank Regional Library on January 5, 2012. The lecture topics were The History of Money, Twelve Coins to Buy Right Now and Why, and Introduction to Stamp Collecting. The lecture was attended by 20 people. We will continue to host a two-hour lecture on the first Thursday of each month. These lectures are open to the general public and are free admission. All are welcomed to attend.
- Michael Maniscalco will make the club's January presentation at the next scheduled club meeting. The topic of the presentation will be Coins of the Third Reich.
- The Board of Directors will meet Wednesday, January 25, 2012 to finalize the club's activity agenda for 2012. The final agenda of activities will be published in February's newsletter.
- It is dues time. That's right! Membership dues are payable by January 1st. Don't wait too late to pay your dues. I know you will not want to miss out on all the great activities and brilliant newsletters in 2012.
