What do you like most about the website?	Easy to read/navigate	Lots of current information and able to get info.	Website is very well done	It explains itself; very good						Information	Easy to view	What I liked most about the website is the questions and answers because you can ask whatever questions you can.	Complete info; ease of access
What do you like least about the website?		More information about coins in general; what is rare or what to look for		Nothing								What I hated most about the website was about the officers and about the presentations and seminars
What suggestions do you have for the website?	More links to ANS, ONS, British Museum, other links; British Library's search ability			None at present				What are the benefits of joining LNA?				I don't have any suggestions because its so good already
